And the governor exclaims, Behold, how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in harmony and | peace.' But, for fear that this snap primary would not deter persons who might desire to oppose his majesty, he committee for the first time in the history of the Democratic party, creted a money standard of qualification, the first time within the hisory of the party has said to the aspiring young men of Kentucky that hey need not apply for official preferment unless they can afford the price. appeal to the young men of the

There was a time in the history of the great Commoner of Kentneky, Henry Chy, the 'Mill Boy of the Slashes;' of Abraham Lincoln, the Rail Splitter; Stephen A. Douglas, the abinetmaker; Andrew Johnson, the tailor, when neither of them co have paid the price under the arbitra-

highest positions within the gift of the people-not one of them would ever have been heard of in politics if the methods of this machine committee had dominated political parties in their day. Every young man in the state owes it to himself to rebuke Beckham for thus trying to convert the party of the people into a machinedominated, pot-house politician-ridden party. Is it wrong that I should refer to them with the deepest sorrow.' The Calhoun Fee.

Speaking or the enormous fee of $90,000 paid to C. C. Calhoun for collecting $1,300,000 from the government Mr. Hendrick said: "Let the distinguished gentleman no longer dodge, but explain to the taxpayers why he and Calhoun entered into a contract to "sandbag" the taxpayers out of this enormous sum of money. There is one other item among many, while I am on this subject, that I will call upon His Excellency to explain. The United States government recently passed an act to pay the Spanish-American soldiers who enlisted from Kentucky for the time elapsing be tween their enlistment and the date of their being mustered into service, and allotted to Kentucky $150,000, to be paid to her soldier boys, and not to C. C. Calhoun. The governor, after he was notified of this, through that strange and inexplicable attachment between him and Calhoun sent Calhoun after the money, which was received and brought to Frankfort, and deposited, not to the credit of the state treasurer, but to the personal credit of J. C. W. Beckham, without ond, and when it was paid out, about $18,000 was retained. Who got it divinity alone can tell. Let the governor explain this, and then I will oblige the people and likewise the governor, by furnishing some other information, which I am loatn to disclose without being forced to the point, as to what became of a part of it. As this money was being distributed to the poor soldiers, who had braved the elements of a foreign clime in their country's defense, they were patted upon the back, while a part of their money was

Thus it will be seen that this young sum sufficient to pay a circuit judge for his services thirty years; a congressman or a judge of the court of appeals, eighteen years; the governor, fourteen years. While the governor is discussing the reasonableness of this fee he might expatiate on these trivial suggestions in the presence of the burthened taxpayers. This money was paid to Governor Beckham as the mmander-in-chief of the soldiers of Kentucky under the constitution, and there is not a line of law upon the statute books or anywhere else to authorize him to employ anybody to receive it or pay out one dollar for collecting it. And while explaining these enormous fees he might incidentally give a little attention and a few words in explanation as to why he employed counsel to assist Judge Pryor and John W. Ray in the fran-companies. The fee had been agreed upon by these gentlemen at $3,000 and everyone at all familiar with their capacity knows that they are amply able to take care of any character of litigation. But the governor positively declined to ratify the employ less his uncle, J. 'Cole' Beckham, should be taken in. He was finally taken into the cases and the fee increased to $5,000. In view of these facts it cannot be denied that the governor is exceedingly liberal with the people's money. And, by the way which he scored the governor for his when Mr. Ellis and 'Uncle Colle' were machine methods and extravagance taken into the case, and the new contract for this enormous fee was con-summated, Mr. John W. Ray, who up to that time had practically done all of the work, was dropped out of the contract, and the governor's uncle substituted, and since he was so subthe twenty-first day of June, 1899, and stituted the part which 'Uncle Colie ple's money in the way of fees. "The solicitude of the governor fo fear that some one will 'sandbag' the corporations of the state is really pa thetic. My experience with the cor porations demonstrates to me that they generally take pretty good care of themselves, so the governor's anxie ty for fear they may be 'sandbagged leads one involuntarily to ask himself what strange sympathy can exist be tween the governor and the corpora tions to induce such carnest affection? But 'm view of the record of the gov ernor the remarkable part of his speech is in reference to 'pardon-brok During his administration of the executive department he has par cluding remissions, etc., for Wolating the laws of the state, and the Breath itt county criminals have been most liberally remembered. We may at least indulge the presumption that the 'pardon-brokers' have not been idle in that locality, while the criminals in the great city of Louisville have not been overlooked."

And now we have the strange spec tacle of Hon. John K. Hendrick on privilege of running for office in the state of Kentucky. These great benefactors of mankind, who have glorified the history of Kentucky, were once as poor as the poorest boy now in our them all.

MR. HAGER'S PLATFORM

In his opening speech at Lexington Judge Hager said:

"I do not, therefore, come before you a perfunctory platform, formu by a few leaders and languidly adopted, without debate, by a meager attended convention, but with one that has been made and approved as their own, by the direct untrammeled votes of thousands of my fellow-Democrats for whose consideration it was

In other words, this is the official platform of the Democratic party and its candidate. This being true, we desire to call attention to the fact that this platform contains eleven planks and not a word is said concerning the temperance question, which is the paramount issue in Kentucky. Judge Hager professes to be a temperance Why does he not endorse the man. cause of temperance in his platform In striking contrast, we call atten tion to the utterance in the Republican

"We favor the enactment and en forcement of a uniform local option law, with the county as the govern-

He then announces his party platform that he made himself, and in which there is not a syllable about temperance. This is done to catch the liquor

The people of Kentucky cannot be deceived in this matter. They prefer to accept the honest, candid statement of Mr. Willson, who clearly defines his position without subterfuge or evasion.

MUST SPEW THEM OUT

William Jennings Bryan said in recent speech "The honesty of the party's pur ose is shown not merely by the platform or the speeches of its candidates being withheld and asked 'not to for- and supporters, but by the character of the men who are entrusted with the party management. And if the attorney without a practice received Democratic party has not virtue the sum of something like $90,000 for enough to spew out those who traffic enough to spew out those who traffic a little less than a year's labor-a in politics, it does not deserve victory nor can it hope for it."

DEMOCRATIC PAPER

Rakes the Machine and Its Engineers Fore and Aft.

Can the Leopard Change Its Spots?

During the Democratic primary for senator and governor last year, the Mayfield Monitor, a staunch Democratic paper, wrote the following strong indictment of the Democratic machine in Kentucky. The fact that Messrs. Hager and Beckham won in that primary does not change the force nor the truthfulness of the charges made by the Monitor. If they were true then, they are now. We submit the Monitor's article to the voters of the state that they may know what a Demperatic editor in the "Gibraltar of Democracy" thinks of the Democratic machine and its engineers, Messrs. Beckham and Hager. And bear in mind that these charges were not made by a Republican and that a few months has not in the least changed the leopard's spots:

What the Fight Is.

The present campaign is not merely a fight between the "ins" and "outs," as the machine organs would have the people believe. It is a fight of the people to dislodge the Frankfort machine, a well organized lot of politicians, banded together for the purpose of controlling all the offices of the state and filling their capacious pockets from the state

And it is a fight that is of much greater import to the people than they can at present realize because machine politics in Kentucky, as applied to the state, is comparatively a recent thing, and it is hard for the people to understand its many evils and the great danger attending is perpet

Machinelsm represents all that is bad in politics. It is practical politics gone to seed. The greatest graft to the smallest number is the motto of the machine politician. Statesmanship and patriotism are completely eliminated from his creed. The people are all "dumb-driven cattle" to him, possessing neither private nor political rights which he is bound to respect, and beyond the means they afford for gratifying his greed for graft and lust for power excite no interest in his unconscionable soul.

The Frankfort machine is modern in every respect. The most up to date appliances for extracting money that will bring sheckles into the hands of the machine or increase its power for perpetuation is being neglected.

This is the machine which Beckham, Hager & Co. built, and for which they are asking a new lease of life. It has already cost the state untold thousands in extravagance and misfeasance, and what it has cost is a mere bagatelle to what it will cost if continued in power.
